Heavy Defaleation. -E. H. Van Hoesan, one of the most popular men of Toledo, Ohio, has been arrested for embezzlement. For years he has been cashier of the Toledo National Bank, and about one year ago was discharged without explanation. The other day he was arraigned before the United States Commissioner, charged with embezzling $58,000, and J. M. McKec, former teller of the same bank. has been arrested in Chicago for complicity in the crime. The alleged crookedness was discovered by a bank examiner a year ago, but was settled by the directors and hushe t up. It is a great surprise to Tolodo, as Mr. Van Hoesan is an elderly man with a large family, and all have moved in the highest

"OLD PROBS,"

Recommendations of the Chief Officer of the Signal Service. -General A. W. Greely, Chief Signal Officer of the a my, in his annual report calls attention to the necessity or improvement and change in current methods of signal instruction and practice. The records show that less than one officer out of nine of the line of the army has received instruction in signaling during the year. These evils are especially pronounced in view of the introduction of the telephone and other last: uments of modern invention which are applicable to signaling purposes. He recommends that the force of enlisted men in the service be reduced from 470 to 200. The cold wave predictions, he says, have improved greatly since their inauguration. The weather crop bulletin has met with great favor. The General urges more liberal appropriations.

BROKE THE RECORD.

Fine Exhibition by Two Jumping Horses at the Chicago Stock Show.

-Two horses have beaten the jumping record at the American Horse Show at Chicago. They were Roseberry and Ontario, the former making a very clean and pretty jump of 6 feet 10% inches. Ontario cleared the pole at the same point, but one hind foot struck it, though not hard enough to knock it down. The former record was 6 feet 91% inches. which was made by Fred Gebhardt's famous horse Leo and Hilemaker. Leodied about three weeks ago and left Hilemaker the only horse holding Disfranchised Chickasaws Protest.

-The disfranchised Chickasaws have held a convention at A dmore, I. T., to protest against the recent action of the Chickasaw Council whereby they were deprived of their rights as members of the Chickasaw Nation, A resolution was adopted deciding that legal steps should be taken to force the Chickasaws to receive them into citizenship again. CURRENT HAPPENINGS.

THE OLD WORLD.

-It is stated in Paris that the disagreement between Prince Murat and Miss Caldwell is only temporary, and that the terms of the marriage contract will probably be satisfactorily arranged. The Caldwell family will remain in Paris. Miss Caldwell is all.

-A company in London, England, is in course of organization with a capital of £500,000, capable of unlimited expansion, for the purpose of purchasing the enormous grain elevators of Chicago. It is alleged that agents of the promoters of this company have recently sounded the controllers of these elevators with such encouraging results as to induce immediate formation of the pool, the transfer of the property to take place at an early date. -Prince Ferdinand has succeeded in placing a loan at Vienna, upon such terms as to excite the ire of Russia, which latter country regards with jealousy any assistance rendered by outside parties to those in authority at Sofla-

-Evidence has been shown in court to prove that Minnie Palmerston, the noted variety actress of London, has three husbands living. -Count von Tanfe. President of the Austrian Council of Monisters and Imperial Minister of the Interior, has signified to the Emperor his intention to resign if the Czeehs continue their clamorous demand that the Emperor revive the Bohemian crown by having himself crowned King. -Despite Poulanger's signal defeat and the seeming hopel-ssness of his cause, he still succeeds in obtaining all the financial help he asks for from his dupes.

-The Register at London has decided that Dion Boueleault has an annual income of from $49,000 to $50,000 and directed that he pay his wife the sum of $150 per month. -Stanley's dispatch to Mr. Mackinnon of

We have reached the Albert Nyanza from Bauniya for the third time in 140 days, and found Emin and Jephson, both of whom have been prisoners since Aug. 18, 1388. The troops in the equatorial region revolted and shook off allegiance soon after the Mahdlists invaded the province in full force, and them ives joined the invades.

Stanley found a latter for him near the Albert Nyanz , exposing the dangerous position of the survivors and urging the immediate necessity of his arrival before the end of December. He arrived there January 18, and waited a long time for the fugitives to come. Mr. Mackinnon says the committee has ordered that supplies be pushed to Mpwapwa and beyond if possible, to meet Stanley, who is expected to reach the coast in January or February.

-Vice Consul General Johnson at London, in a pr vate letter sent to Indianapolis, states that he recently called on Mary Anderson, who in a long talk said that she had never been in better health and spirits. and Mr. Johnson ad is she looks it.
